Cari amici,

53100 turns three this year - a milestone that reflects how far this little project has come. As 53100 matures, this year we're hoping to fine tune this delicate machine even more. While 2024 is etched in our memories, this year we aim to keep the essence of what makes 53100 special while making small changes to better the experience. On this note, we appreciate everyone who's provided valuable feedback last year, it means a lot!

As we gear up to launch the tickets to the festival (which should be available in mid-February), here are a few updates to share:

NEW DATES: For the first time, we've moved the dates to the end of August (29-31). Having felt a little chilly last year, we're hoping it's going to be a little warmer atop Monte San Michele.

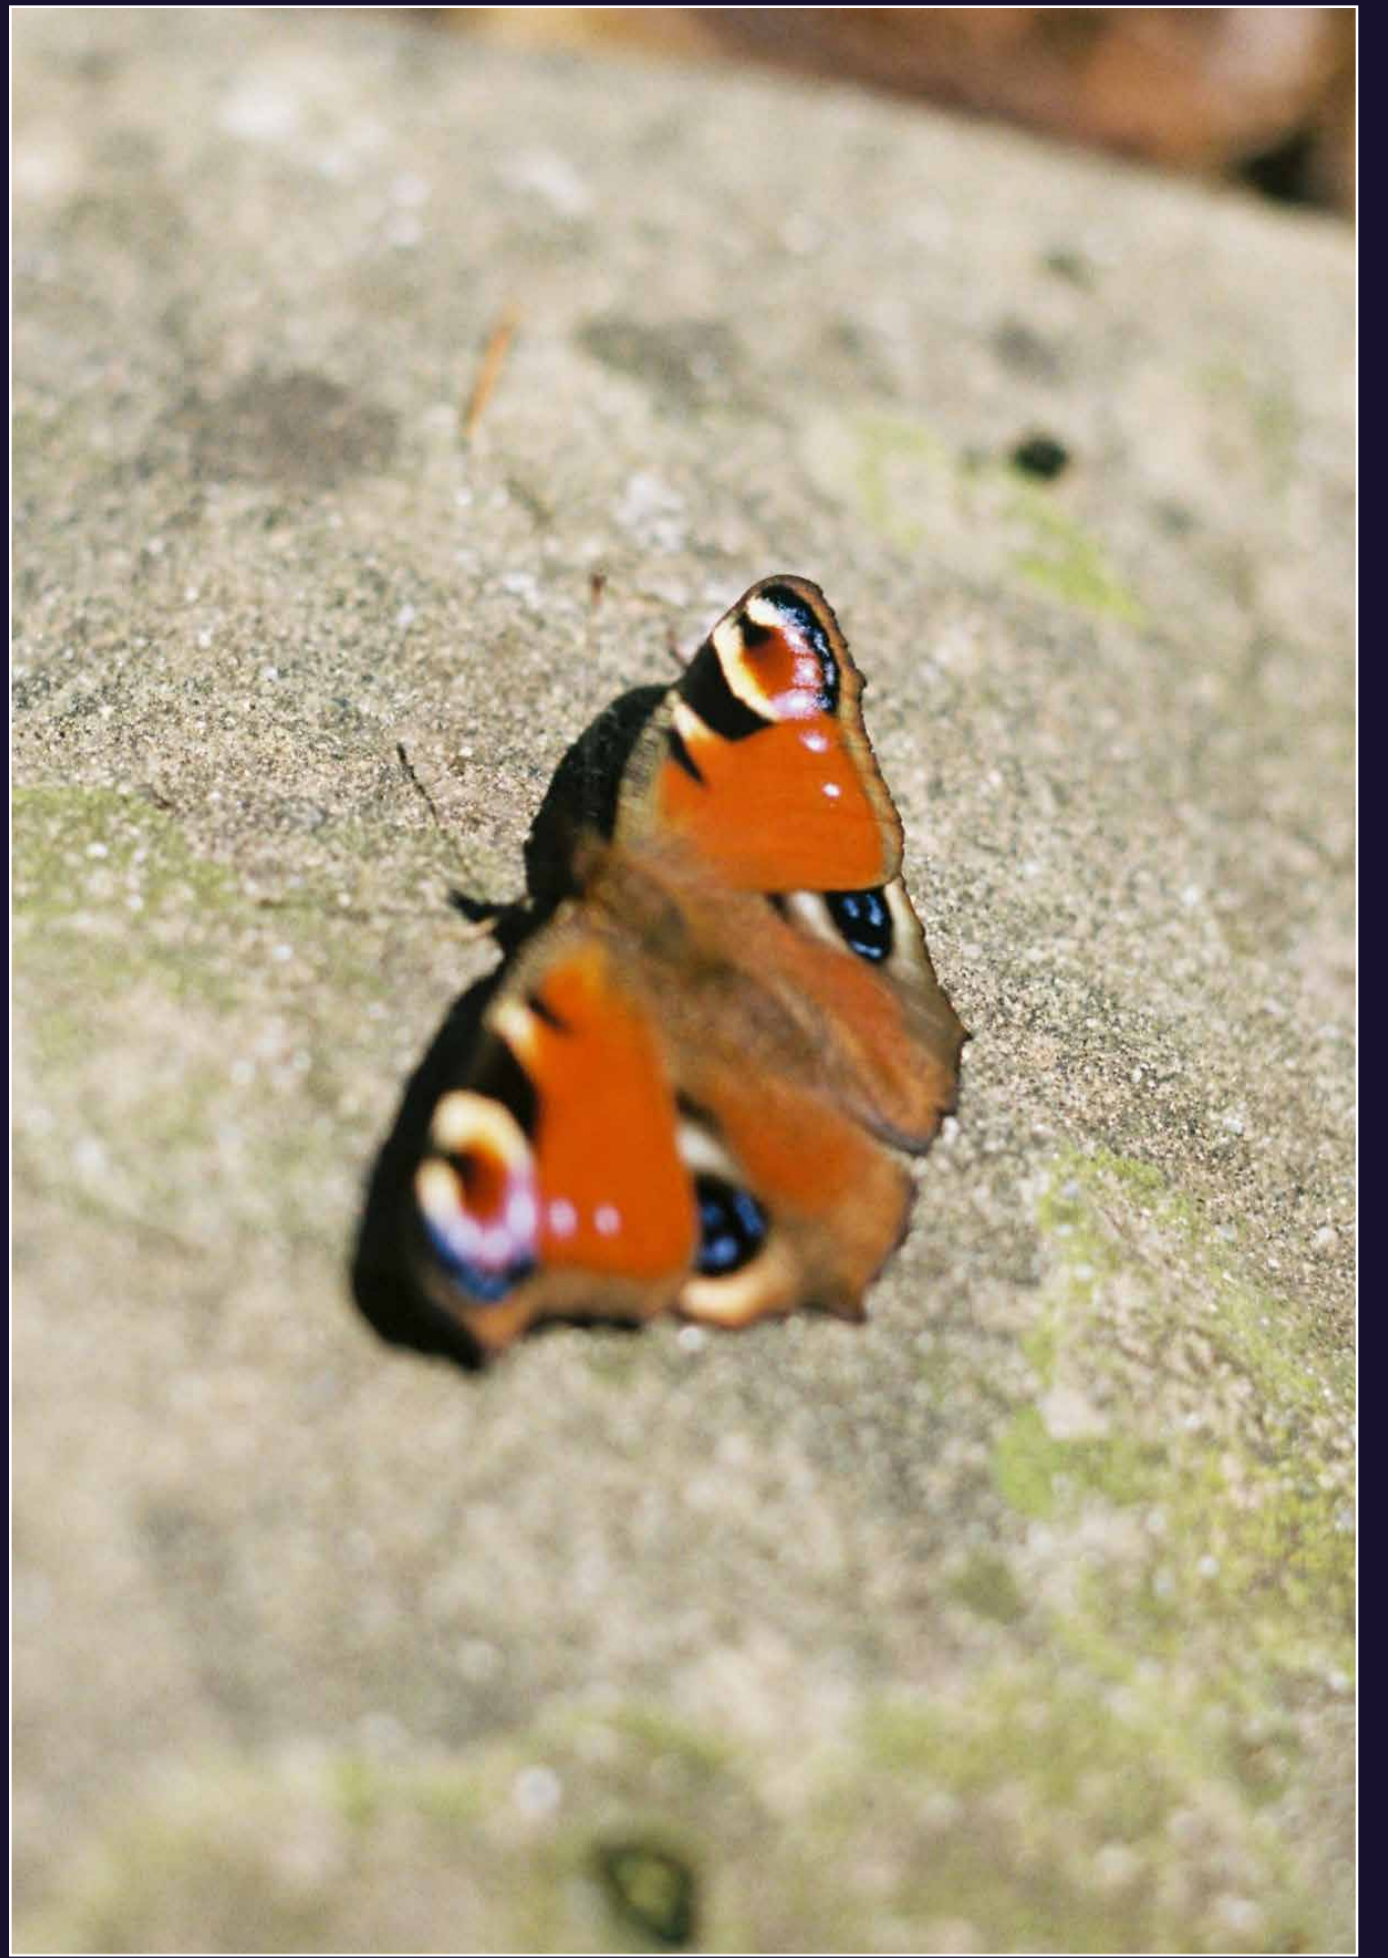

VOLUNTEERS: 53100 needs volunteers. Last year's volunteering team was top class (thank you all!) and we're on the hunt for helping hands again. Interested? Please get in touch with 53100@soworldwide.net for more info.

STAY CONNECTED: We have a Telegram group which we use, along Instagram and our newsletter, to communicate. If you haven't yet signed-up to it, here's the link.

That's all for now. Keep an eye out for the ticket launch and lock-in the dates in your calendars. Time flies as festival planning kicks into high gear, and we're looking forward to climbing up Chianti's highest peak for the third year. Until then, stay warm out there!

A presto,

LOCAL CULTURE

53100 has been conceived as a celebration of music and Tuscan culture. Together with local heroes we've designed some activities to help you better contextualize the region, its nature, its people and what lies behind the region's main source of sustenance: the Chianti wine. We're keeping it simple but very effective here. More info on the experiences on offer will come soon.

Villa San Michele is run by a couple, Daniele and Alice, whose passion for hospitality and good food is reflected both in the warm, cozy atmosphere of San Michele, as well as their lovely restaurant, serving delicious seasonal and locally sourced Tuscan meals. Together with their team they'll be looking after our appetites with an ample Tuscan menu informed by the unique geography of our land. The menu is designed to appeal to most dietary requirements.

The inclusive formula entitles the WEEKEND, OSTELLO and ALBERGO pass holder to the following:

Tuscan welcome dinner in Villa San Michele's restaurant (including wine).
